

SOCHI

Calendar

February 22.

Colonial Carnival at Coliseum Skating Rink in honor of Washington's Birthday.

February 22.

Miss Virginia Nunn will entertain with a tea in honor of her guest, Miss Elsie Leavy, at her home on Third street Saturday afternoon.

February 28.

Tissue Paper Carnival at the Coliseum Skating Rink for children under sixteen years of age Friday afternoon.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Despite the very inclement weather of Wednesday evening, some five hundred guests attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Andrew Scott and the Misses Scott, at their handsome home on Shelby St., which was beautiful in decorations of cut flowers and smilax, and brilliantly illuminated with electric bulbs. The front parlor, where Mr. and Mrs. Scott and the Misses Scott received their guests, was very attractive in decorations of brides roses and smilax.

Those who assisted in receiving and looking toward the comfort of the guests were Mesdames, William Saffell, C. P. Chenault, S. J. Shackelford, W. F. Grayot, J. C. W. Beckham, C. R. Hudson, M. B. Adams, J. W. Hill, Sue Bacon Merriman, H. S. Keller, Harry Tandy, E. E. Hume, Misses Todd Saffell, Fannie Gray, Florrie Rodman, Christine McEwan, Virginia Nunn, Hettie Belle Fuqua, Coranella Crutcher and Genevieve Posey. The flowers here were placed in tall vases and the chandelier festooned in smilax.

The gowns of the receiving party and the honor guests were of unusual beauty and elegance. The guests of honor were: Miss Julia Poynter of Shelbyville; Miss Clara Louise Kinkead of Lexington; Misses Ellen and Ethel Witherspoon of Versailles; Miss Lillian Towles, of Henderson; Mrs. W. L. Rankin of Lebanon; Mrs. Joseph C. VanMeter of Lexington.

In the dining hall the color scheme was pink, and pink carnations were used in profusion. Silver candelabra with pink candles and pink shades were placed upon the tables and mantles.

The rear parlor was lovely with an abundance of meteor roses, and smilax. The lights here were from red tapers, hooded in the same shade.

During the evening, Kleih and Son, of Louisville, served a delicious supper to the numerous guests who called. The Frankfort Orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. Among the out of town guests who called were: Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Van Meter, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hamilton, of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Graham Vreeland, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, and Judge and Mrs. H. S. Barker, of Louisville; Dr. and Mrs. Lister Witherspoon, and Mr. and Mrs. David L. Thornton, of Versailles; Miss Elsie Leavy, of Lexington; Jane Reed, of Louisville; Marie Lindsey, of Louisville; Hettie Belle Fuqua, of Owensboro; Gladys Griffith, of Cincinnati; Fannie Williams, of Versailles; Ida Dowling, of Lawrenceburg; Margaret Poynter, of Midway; Katherine Wallace of Midway; Mabel Walker, of Versailles; Mary Belle Edwards, of Versailles; Mrs. Buena Mimms, of Trenton; Mrs. Summers, of Bardonia; Mrs. Gus Coulter, of Lexington; Messrs. A. S. Bennett, of Louisville; Dr. H. B. Scott, Bolivar Buckner, Jr., of Hart County; Lee Peterson, of Campbellsville; Thos. Leamore Rogers, of Florence, Ala.; Cleves Kinkead, of Louisville; Thos. Johnson, of Henderson; Ed. Young, of Versailles; John Graves, of Versailles.

MISS TAYLOR'S GERMAN AT THE COUNTRY CLUB.

Another of the delightful affairs of the week was the German at the Country Club Wednesday evening, given honorably by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Peterson, S. B. Buckner, Jr., Chas. Clayton, Clyde Smith, D. B. Cornett, Wm. Cannon, C. W. Hay, F. L. Beatty, Bacon Blanton, Dr. Feamster, Ben Keenon, Mason Brown, Dr. C. A. Fish, Richard McClure, Pruett Graham, Will Montgomery, Jas Montgomery, H. P. Mason, Jr., Percy Hoge, Judge Dowling, Quinn Cogar, Mr. Kinkead, Edmund H. Taylor, D. D. Smith, Carl Quintell, Sam Stone Bush, Jno. W. Rodman, Jr., L. W. Arnett, R. C. Simmons, J. M. Alverson, Polk Lafoon, A. R. Dunlap, H. Z. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. VanDerveer, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAlpin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. South, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Poyntz, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dandridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tandy, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chenault, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hazelrigg, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Saffell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lindsey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. J. L. Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Stage, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Stage, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Geary, Dr. and Mrs. Sam E. James, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. O'Rear.

Miss Mary Belle Taylor, C. Rodman, Virginia Gray, Alice ton, Frances Sanderson, C. Crutcher, N'na Vischer, R. Lillian Poyntz, Henrietta ecca Johnson, Mrs. F. Aileen Croswaite, Louise VanWinkle, Florrie Rodman, Marie Trimble, Annie Neason, Clara Louise Kinkead, Miss Felix, Hattie Scott, Misses Witherspoon, Miss Dowling, Virginia Nunn, Elsie Leavy, Irene Quintell, Marie Lindsey, Miss Magoffin, Miss Fuqua, Ana Baker, Miss Nourse, Messrs. Thos. Johnson, Lee Peterson, S. B. Buckner, Jr., Chas. Clayton, Clyde Smith, D. B. Cornett, Wm. Cannon, C. W. Hay, F. L. Beatty, Bacon Blanton, Dr. Feamster, Ben Keenon, Mason Brown, Dr. C. A. Fish, Richard McClure, Pruett Graham, Will Montgomery, Jas Montgomery, H. P. Mason, Jr., Percy Hoge, Judge Dowling, Quinn Cogar, Mr. Kinkead, Edmund H. Taylor, D. D. Smith, Carl Quintell, Sam Stone Bush, Jno. W. Rodman, Jr., L. W. Arnett, R. C. Simmons, J. M. Alverson, Polk Lafoon, A. R. Dunlap, H. Z. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. VanDerveer, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAlpin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. South, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Poyntz, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dandridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tandy, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chenault, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hazelrigg, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Saffell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lindsey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. J. L. Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Stage, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Stage, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Geary, Dr. and Mrs. Sam E. James, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. O'Rear.

Nothing could have been prettier than the dining room and the parlors of her home, decorated as they were in an abundance of yellow tulips and golden gate roses.

The four-course luncheon was served on a beautiful table which had a mound of yellow tulips in the center. White tapers were hooded in yellow silk. The place cards were hand-painted, and were quite clever, reproductions of cadets en caracature.

The guests were: Miss Mary Belle Taylor, Misses Lillian Poyntz, Henrietta Poyntz, Miss Poyntz, of Cincinnati; Miss Mary Swigert Hendrick, Miss Gladys Rodman, Miss Anne Montgomery, Miss Gladys Griffith, Miss Clara Louise Kinkead, Miss Lillian Towles, Miss Edwards, of Versailles; Miss Virginia Gray, Miss Lida Edelen, Miss Marie Lindsey and Mrs. Ella Barrett, Mrs. William Pruett, Mrs. Robinson Farmer, Mr. William Pruett, Mr. Thomas J. Johnson, Mr. Lee Peterson, Mr. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Mr. Charles Clayton and Mr. Carl Quintell.

MR. C. W. HAY'S DINNER.

Mr. C. W. Hay entertained the Taylor party Friday evening with a beautiful seven-course dinner at the Capital Hotel.

The table, resplendent in silver and china, was decorated with a profusion of red carnations and light was furnished by red tapers in tall candelabras. The place cards were emblematic of the Father of our country, and done by a local artist.

This dinner marked the ending of a long series of handsome affairs given for Messrs. Johnson, Buckner and Peterson, the guests of Miss Taylor, at "Thistleton."

MRS. PRUETT'S CARD PARTY.

After the dinner at Mrs. John Rodman's, those who dined and dined cadets, fresh from honors at Annapolis, were given a charming bridge game at Mr. and Mrs. William Pruett's. The house decorations were yellow roses and yellow tulips and smilax. At the conclusion of the game a most appetizing luncheon was served to about twenty-six guests.

LEAP YEAR DANCE.

Misses Rose Salender and Bush Showalter entertained with a delightful leap year dance Tuesday evening at Y. M. I. hall in the Capital Trust Building in honor of Miss Rena Lee, of New Albany, and Miss Carrie Benninger, of Covington.

Among those dancing were Miss Rena Lee and Mr. Raymond Wendall, Miss Carrie Benninger and Mr. Guy Howard, Miss Rose Salender and Mr. Leslie Jones, Miss Elizabeth Lutkemeler and Mr. William Merrick, Miss Eva Lukemeler and Mr. Culbert Merrick, Miss Katie Schroff and Mr. Wm. Loggie, Miss Josephine Schroff and Mr. John Weidman, Miss Mary Schroff and Mr. John Drennon, Miss Anna R. Laughlin and Mr. Owen Canty, Miss Bessie Goodwin and Mr. Porter Reed, Miss Lillian Pepper and Mr. Edw. Cooke, Miss Margaret O'Connor and Mr. George Mattern, Miss Bush Showalter and Mr. Forest, Miss Emma Fuhls and Mr. J. F. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sower and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Lutkemeler.

MISS TAYLOR'S "GOOSE" PARTY.

The first of a series of dinners, luncheons and parties was the "Goose Party" given by Mr. Edmund Taylor and Miss Mary Belle Taylor Tuesday evening at "Thistleton." This delightful affair was in honor of the three cadets who are the guests of the Taylors. Mr. Thomas J. Johnson, Mr. Lee Peterson and Mr. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr. Roasted "goose" was the piece de resistance on a beautifully appointed table of course, and the ta-

Y. M. I. ENTERTAIN.

The Young Men's Institute delightfully entertained their many friends Wednesday evening, with a Euchre and Dance at their hall in the Capital Trust Building. The series this winter have been most enjoyable, as these gatherings once a week have helped to pass the dull evenings very pleasantly.

The ladies prize, a tortoise shell comb was awarded Mrs. Wm. C. Lutkemeler. The gentleman's prize, a sterling silver back cloth brush, was

LA

A Y

Mr.

the w lovely

given in brother, M.

Thomas J.

and his two

brother cadets

Lee Peters

and Simon B.

ackner, Jr., and

Miss Mary Belle Taylor.

Nothing

could have been prettier

than the dining room and the parlors

of her home, decorated

as they were in an abundance of yellow tulips

and golden gate

roses.

The four-course luncheon was served on a beautiful table

which had a mound of yellow tulips

in the center.

White tapers

were hooded

in yellow silk.

The place cards

were hand-

painted, and were quite clever,

reproductions

of cadets en

caracature.

The guests

were: Miss

Mary Belle

Taylor, Misses

Lillian Poyntz,

Henrietta

Poyntz, Miss

Poyntz, of Cincinnati; Miss

Mary Swigert

Hendrick,

Miss Gladys

Rodman, Miss

Anne Montgomery, Miss

Gladys Griffith,

Miss Clara

Louise Kin-

kead, Miss

Lillian Tow-

les, Miss Edwards, of Versailles; Miss

Virginia Gray,

Miss Lida

Edelen, Miss

Marie Lindsey

and Mrs. Ella

Barrett, Mrs.

William

Pruett, Mrs.

Robinson

Farmer, Mr.

William

Pruett, Mr.

Thomas J.

Johnson,

Mr. Lee

Peterson, Mr.

Simon

Bolivar

Buckner,

Mr. Charles

Clayton

and Mr. Carl

Quintell.

MR. C. W. HAY'S DINNER.

Mr. C. W. Hay

entertained

the Taylor

party Friday evening with a beautiful

seven-course dinner at the Capital Hotel.

The table,

resplendent

in silver

and china,

was decorated with a profusion of red

carnations

and light

was furnished by red tapers in

tall candelabras. The place cards

were embla-

matic of the Father of our country,

and done

by a local artist.

This dinner

marked the ending of a long series of handsome

affairs

given for

Messrs. John-

son, Buckner

and Peterson,

the guests

of Miss Taylor, at "Thistleton."

MRS. PRUETT'S CARD PARTY.

After the dinner at

Mrs. John

Rod-

man's, those who dined

and dined

cadets,

fresh from honors at

Annapolis,

were given a charming

bridge game

at Mr.

and Mrs.

William

Pruett's. The

house

decorations

were yellow

roses

and yellow

tulips and

smilax. At the conclusion

of the game

a most appetizing

luncheon

was served to about twenty-six

guests.

LEAP YEAR DANCE.

Misses

Rose

Salender

and Bush

Showalter

entertained